SPEAKER • AUTHOR • TRAINER • ENTREPRENEUR

Kachelle Kelly is the founder of Kachelle Kelly Int'l, a small business training and coaching firm specializing in Emotional Intelligence, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI), and leadership. Her mission is to empower career-driven individuals for holistic success. As a sought-after corporate trainer, transformational speaker, and bestselling author, Kachelle is dedicated to making Emotional Intelligence accessible to a broader audience, offering EQ training resources on her website, www.EQwithKK.com.

With decades of coaching and training experience, Kachelle has collaborated and trained staff at corporations and Fortune 500 brands across all 50 states (excluding Hawaii), empowering individuals to thrive. She spearheads the Bosses Pray Movement, seamlessly integrating spirituality into the business landscape for authentic success. Her self-published Boss Pray series has impressively sold over 100,000 copies organically. For more info and to download two free chapters, visit www.BossesPray.com.

In addition to her professional pursuits, Kachelle is the visionary founder of The Strong Friend Society, a 501c3 organization dedicated to providing a Global Safe Haven for Mental Health and Connection Among Powerful Women. For more information, please visit www.StrongFriendSociety.com.

Kachelle's impact led to her own day, August 25th, recognized by Mayor Annise Parker in her hometown of Houston, Texas. Beyond her professional accomplishments, Kachelle is a proud dog mom and a passionate cook. She holds a bachelor's degree in Biblical Counseling, is DEI-certified by Cornell University, and resides in Pearland, Texas.
